

Legal Action Started To Block Trial

WASHINGTON — A federal judge today directed U. S. authorities to show cause why an American soldier accused of slaying a Japanese woman should not be returned to the United States.

The soldier, Army Specialist 3c William S. Girard of Ottawa, Ill., is about to be turned over to the Japanese for trial there on charges of killing the Japanese woman while she was scavenging on an Army firing range.

FEDERAL JUDGE Joseph C. McGarraghy directed U. S. authorities to show cause after Girard's attorneys petitioned him to order Girard's immediate return to the United States. The lawyers held that the shift to Japanese courts was illegal and unconstitutional.

McGarraghy said he could not do so without a "more complete record."

Accordingly, he ordered more hearings next Monday to determine whether Girard should be returned to the United States.

McGARRAGHY SIGNED papers whereby Girard will be retained in U. S. custody until the habeas corpus issue is resolved.

Girard's attorney, Earl J. Carroll of New York, argued that the soldier is being made "a sacrificial lamb merely for the purpose of appeasement."

Carroll said that, even granting that Japanese courts are as good as those in the United States, the case sets a precedent for all soldiers wherever they are sent.

Carroll contended that the mishap took place in an area equivalent to a U. S. Army base where Japan has no jurisdiction.

GIRARD, A 21-YEAR-OLD Army specialist third class, faces manslaughter charges in the death of a Japanese woman on a firing range in Japan. He is to be turned over to Japanese courts under the "Status of Forces" agreement.

His widowed mother Wednesday night left her bed at the state hospital in Peoria where she was under treatment for a nervous condition, and moved to the home of her son, Louis, an automobile mechanic here.

"It's a dirty shame what's being done to my son," she told United Press. She said Girard was not the "type of boy to get into trouble."

Theresa Press To Head Rose Bowl Committee

Theresa Press, who has consistently been working toward the goal of having a Palm Springs float in the Pasadena Tournament of Roses, yesterday noon was elected chairman of a new organization which will be known as the Palm Springs Float Association.

The purpose of the organization, which will be incorporated as soon as possible, will be to enter floats—representing Palm Springs—in such parades as the Tournament of Roses, the Mardi Gras and others that could do much to promote Palm Springs.

Other officers named at yesterday's meeting included Jim Schlicht, first vice president; Jimmy Cooper, second vice president; Herb Foster, treasurer, and Stanton Griffing, secretary.

The corporation, comprised of these officers, will form the board of directors of a non-profit corporation.

The board of directors will hold a meeting today to discuss the appointment of committees and the filing of legal papers for the corporation.

Yesterday's meeting was held in the Chi Chi Blue Room.

13 Killed, 25 More Injured in Truck Crash in N. C.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C. — A tractor-trailer truck loaded with potatoes smashed into a truck crowded with migrant workers at a busy highway intersection nine miles north of here today, killing 13 persons and injuring at least 25 others.

The truck of migrant Negro workers was bound from Mt. Olive, N. C., to Dunn for the workers to pick beans.

Authorities said it apparently failed to halt at a stop sign at the intersection and was rammed in the side by the tractor-trailer, en route from Fayetteville to Dunn with a load of potatoes.

Blood Bank Visit Here, Last of Year, Set Monday

Palm Springs residents were urged today to make reservations for the final visit of the Riverside-San Bernardino two-county Blood Bank at Desert Hospital on Monday.

The monthly visits will be discontinued here during the summer months.

Robert Henwood, hospital administrator, urged that as many persons as possible visit the Blood Bank, to build up reserve credits or to repay blood used in the past. He termed the blood credit as an insurance policy, available when needed.

The Bank will be at the hospital from 11 a. m. to 1 p. m. Reservations for donating of blood may be made by calling the hospital, 2251.

Dictatorship Charged in Bakery Union

Senate Rackets Committee Starts New Investigation

WASHINGTON — A Bakery Workers Union official testified today that former union Vice President George L. Stuart ran a "dictatorship," dipping into union funds and removing officers who objected to his rule.

The witness, Anthony Conforti, president of the union's big local in Chicago, told the Senate Rackets Committee he gave $6,750 to Stuart to organize workers of a cookie company.

THE COMPANY said in an affidavit that it was not aware any drive had been under way.

Conforti also testified that $2,592 of union funds was used to buy camera equipment for Stuart in 1954.

The Chicago union leader said he did not protest this and other practices because, "I was afraid of my job."

He said officials of local unions who disagreed with Stuart were summarily removed.

Khrushchev, Bulganin Go To Finland

Hope to Erase Memories of Hungary There

HELSINKI, Finland — The Soviet political team of Nikita S. Khrushchev and Nikolai Bulganin sped toward Finland today on a visit aimed at wiping out Scandinavia's memories of Hungary with a display of Soviet-Finnish friendship.

Premier Bulganin and Communist Party Chief Khrushchev were traveling with an impressive group that included Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, Culture Minister Nikolai Mikhailov, Security Chief Gen. Ivan Serov, Vice Foreign Trade Minister Pavel Kurykin and Deputy Chief of Staff Gen. Mikhail Matin.

A SMALL GROUP of Finnish foreign office officials waited at the border station of Vainikkala to meet the Russians' train when it crossed the border. The big red carpet welcome by Finnish government leaders was reserved for their arrival in Helsinki at 5 p. m.

This was a quick return visit for Serov who spent two days in Finland last week checking security arrangements. A public uproar forced cancellation of his presence on the 1956 London visit of Bulganin and Khrushchev but he was in and out of Finland without being recognized.

THE WEEK-LONG visit will be crisscrossed with sightseeing, receptions and dinners. Two occasions were set aside for formal talks but the Finns were close-mouthed about topics to be discussed.

Red River Starts New Flood Threat

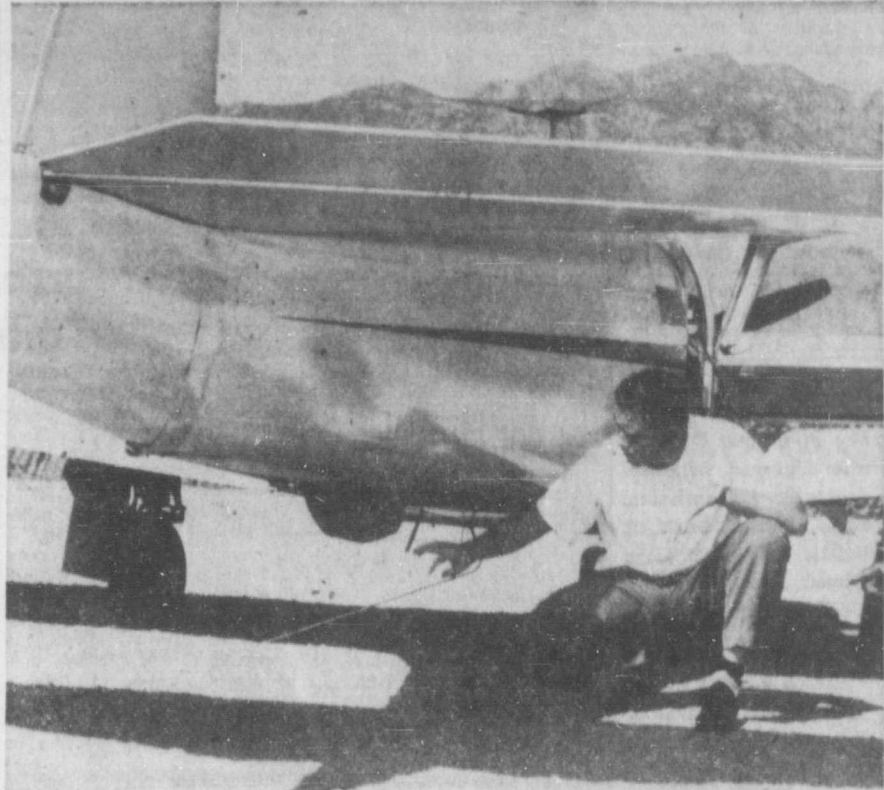

DALLAS, Tex. — Flood waters spilled at the rate of 712,500 gallons a second through restraining barriers of Lake Texoma today into the Red River, pushing the big Red even higher and creating flood threats in four southwestern states.

Water poured three feet deep over the lake spillway and through floodgates which were opened to prevent build-up pressure from breaking them down. Lowlands in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Arkansas were inundated.

Flood Control Hearing Set Here Friday

Riverside County Flood Control Board will hold its second budget meeting at Frances Stevens school tomorrow at 4 p. m., it was announced today by Bill Mason, secretary.

The meeting will be presided over by chairman Ray Sorum.

ROBERT H. HOWSER, San Marino, pilot of the single engine Mooney, and a passenger escaped injury this morning when he was forced to crash-land his plane at Palm Springs airport, after the landing gear failed to lock in place. The plane slid several hundred feet without doing much damage, and strangely, the propeller, which is usually the first to crumble, was not damaged. Passenger in the plane was Dwane Tjomsland, Los Angeles contractor and owner of the plane, who was coming to Palm Springs to work on the Smoke Tree Estates project. The landing gear failure was blamed on a broken connecting bar. (Sun Photo).

224 to Receive Junior High Diplomas Tonight

Two hundred and twenty-four Junior High School eighth graders will receive their diplomas tonight at 8 p. m. at the Palm Springs High School quadrangle.

The graduation class numbers almost 100 more than last year, and marks the largest class in the history of Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School.

THE PROGRAM will start with the processional, followed by the salute to the flag, led by Dr. James H. Blackstone, Jr., pastor of the Palm Springs Community Church.

Michael Hart, Student body president, will give the welcome to the visitors. Following two orchestral selections, there will be the presentation of awards.

Southerners Gain Ground In Civil Rights Bill Battle

WASHINGTON — House backers of the controversial civil rights bill showed concern today at signs that Southerners are gaining ground in their fight for a "jury trial" amendment.

The House prepared to begin formal debate on the "right-to-vote" bill this afternoon after a preliminary round of discussion Wednesday, and 17 days of hearings earlier by two House committees.

THE HOUSE AGREED to permit four days of talks on the bill with unlimited introduction of amendments permitted after the general debate ends Monday. Foes of the measure stood by with some three dozen amendments to tack on it.

Although voting on amendments will not start until next week, discussions already focused more on the "jury trial" amendment than on the bill itself. A final vote on the bill is expected late next week.

Southerners said openly, and some of the bill's backers admitted privately, that as of now the amendments stands a good chance of going through.

Will Offer 2 Round Trip Flights Daily

Service Expected To Be Started In September

Palm Springs today moved a step forward in air service with Bonanza Airlines authorized by the Civil Aeronautics Board to service the Village.

Bonanza was the only one of four airlines given such authority, with the Western Air Lines petition to expand its service from Los Angeles to Phoenix via Palm Springs denied.

IN EFFECT, as soon as it is made official by a written decision, it will give Palm Springs feeder service between Los Angeles and Phoenix on a two-flight a day round-trip basis. Bonanza also was authorized a nonstop flight between Phoenix and Salt Lake City, and this should open up a new market of tourists from that area for the Village.

Mayor Florian G. Boyd, on being informed by The Desert Sun of the CAB decision, said that "We're very happy to have Bonanza come in and serve us here. Bonanza will do a very nice job on a feeder basis. It's a step forward, and we have to walk before we run, but we will continue to fight for additional transcontinental service."

WILLIAM MITCHELL, Bonanza vice president in charge of sales and traffic, told The Desert Sun by telephone from Las Vegas that service will be started as soon as possible, but will have to await a formal written decision by the CAB, expected in 30 days, plus a 60-day waiting period after that.

He predicted that service would be started by late September, and said that the two round-trips a day would be continued from then on, year-round.

Bonanza is currently using deluxe DC3s, but plans to acquire new planes by next year.

Mitchell said that "Bonanza is very enthusiastic that the CAB has recognized the type of service we can give Palm Springs, and we fully believe that it will offer better service than any other airline could give."

It opens up an entire new market for the Village, he continued, as Bonanza works closely with the major airlines.

Palm Springs is now serviced by Western, from Los Angeles only.

Sharp Increase in Auto Accidents Recorded During Month of April sulted in 18 arrests, many of them for violation of the liquor laws. Officers of the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board were present and worked with the police department enforcing regulations for a two week period.

THE CHIEF'S report pointed out that "while it seemed that there were more young visitors in town than ever before, fewer complaints were made to the department and it is felt that the situation was under tighter control."

Burglaries during the month of April rose from 2 to 5 while robberies dropped from 2 in 1956 to none this year.

Largely influenced by theft from automobiles, merchandise totaling $11,364 was reported stolen, of which only $193 was recovered.

A sharp increase in automobile accidents was recorded during the month of April, when a total of 35 were reported, compared with 21 during the same period of 1956.

The monthly report issued by Chief of Police August G. Kettmann, shows that injury accidents jumped from 5 to 10 and non-injury were up from 15 to 25.

UNTIL APRIL, which includes Easter Week, the city this year had experienced a decrease in accidents over the preceding season. A study shows that traffic accidents were evenly divided between visitors and local residents.

Citations issued were also up from 366 to 424.

The Easter vacation period with its influx of juvenile visitors re-

Bus Scheduled Advanced for Junior High, High

Transportation schedules for the Nellie N. Coffman Junior High School and Palm Springs High School have been moved up one half hour on Friday, June 7, the last day of school.

Dr. Wallace Muelder, superintendent of schools, explained that the minimum day schedule necessitated the rescheduling. He said that since the High School commencement is scheduled for Friday evening at 7:30 p.m. in the High School quadrangle the normal schedule would run quite late for many of the graduating seniors.

Elementary schools will start at the regular time, 9 a.m., and their minimum day on Friday closes at approximately 1:30 p.m. No lunches will be served by the cafeteria staff on that day.

Wave of Terror Against Viet Nam Catholics Feared

SAIGON, Viet Nam (AP)—Observers here fear that an anti-Catholic campaign in the newspapers of Communist North Viet Nam might foreshadow a reign of terror against the church in the Red's Southeast Asia outpost.

The campaign has been under way for two months. Officials of the American-backed government of South Viet Nam and Western diplomats are watching it.

"IT IS TOO early," one diplomatic source told United Press, "to determine what new course may be taken against the Catholic church in North Viet Nam. But it is obvious that something unpleasant is in store for Catholics up there."

Priests living under the Communist regime are being accused in the press of using the confessional and the pulpit for "espionage" and "propaganda."

Francis Cardinal Spellman, Roman Catholic archbishop of New York, has been mentioned in the attacks.

THE ATTACKS on priests have appeared in the Hanoi newspaper, Thoi Moi New Times, which is controlled by the Communist government and is often used to test policies before they receive official government sanction.

Prince Marries Princess Today

SALEM, Germany (AP)—A prince today married a princess.

The royal couple was Prince Tomislav of Yugoslavia and Princess Margarita of Baden. He operates a fruit farm near London. She is a nurse in a London hospital.

The airline, actually a combination of several non-scheduled operators, had frankly violated CAB regulations covering non-scheduled operations on a challenge to the established commercial airlines. The challenge failed.

But in the process, the non-scheduled pioneered in cut-rate tourist fares which are now standard among the big carriers. Trans American did a 16-million dollar annual business and carried more than 1,250,000 passengers without an accident.

Police Maintain Close Watch After Threats

TOKYO (AP)—Japanese police maintained a close watch today at the home of an American who said he received telephoned and written threats against the lives of his four young children.

The American, Douglas F. Scott, returned to his job at the U.S. Naval Base at Yokosuka uncertain whether a fiend was stalking his children or whether the threats were someone's idea of a joke.

SCOTT STRUNG up a barbed wire barricade around his home in Kamakura after receiving warnings that his children would be "cut into little pieces" unless he paid some three million yen, about $9,000.

Japanese police at Kamakura said patrolmen assigned to the area were ordered to keep a special watch on the Scott home and that other "precautions" were being taken. "We believe the story," a police spokesman said.

TWO OF THE Scott children were sent off to a friend's home. The other two remained in the house with Mrs. Scott, a Honolulu-born Nisei.

Scott, who said he is a native of North Hollywood, Calif., married his wife, Midori, in 1950 while both were students at UCLA. They have been in Japan since 1955.

Low Fencing Bid for Highway 60-70 is $27,408

Mills Fencing Company of Bell Gardens was the low bidder for the installation of eighteen miles of fencing between one mile east of Garnet and Thousand Palms. The bid was $27,408. It was announced by Clyde V. Kane, district engineer of the State Division of Highways in San Bernardino.

Alcorn Fence Company of Los Angeles was second with a bid of $29,462.00 and E. L. Yeager of Riverside was third with a bid of $33,576.00. Five bids were received and all are being taken under advisement by Frank B. Durkee, director of public works.

The four-strand barbed wire fence with metal posts will control access along the expressway which was completed last fall.

Kane said the contractor will be allowed about two and one-half months to complete the work. The traveling public will be allowed to pass through the construction area at all times with as little inconvenience and delay as possible.

Adventists Hear Of Problem of Alcohol in U.S.

Elder R. L. Hubbs, head of the Public Relations Department of the Southeastern Conference of the Seventh-day Adventists, gave the sermon at the Palm Springs Seventh-day Adventist church, speaking on behalf of the American Temperance Society.

Elder Hubbs gave notable instances in the Bible where the curse of alcohol is mentioned. In Genesis, Chapter 19, there is the origin of the Moabites and the Ammonites as a direct result of the use of alcohol. In the ninth chapter of Genesis, is found the curse that Noah placed on his son Ham—which today is revealed in the problem of color segregation.

Mrs. Charlotte Steward entertained her family from Del Mar over the weekend, her son, Harry (Bud) Steward and wife and small son.

A "no host" table for visiting Rotarians wives last Friday included Mrs. Herbert A. Stone of North Hollywood, Mrs. Henry Naas of Santa Clara, and her sister, Mrs. George Vastine. The Naas family are famous candy makers in Santa Clara, and a visit to their wholesale-retail factory is a sight-seeing "must" when in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. James Barton will leave this week for Spokane where they will spend the summer. The Bartons entertained several groups of friends before their departure.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry W. Holt will leave soon for their summer home which is on the St. Clair River in Marine City, Mich. Mr. Holt expects to return to business activities in September.

Mrs. Arthur Pautz and her houseguest, Mrs. Wanda Bushnell of Akron, Ohio, will leave soon for Carmel and then on to Oregon.

Miss Edith Eddy Ward and her mother, Bunny Ward, left Saturday for Lazy H Ranch where they will stay until Tuesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Colby of the Lazy H Ranch entertained a group of fourteen this last week, the young ladies who were models in the Fashion Show for the Casa de Cuna Children's Home Society given around the Lazy H pool last Sunday. They included Nan Hilbard, Dotty Brooks, Hazel Mead, Susie Nelson, Lois DeLacy, Margaret Thornburg and Midge Colby. Edith Eddy Ward, Charlotte Steward and Vera Arnold were also in the party. Mrs. Myron Guilbert, president of the Casa de Cuna, was the commentator.

Mrs. Hudson Werder will spend some time in Europe this summer, accompanied by her granddaughter, Sandy, whose engagement to Ralph Schoengert was announced a few weeks ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Fisher have their two granddaughters, Mary and Jill Schaper of Minneapolis, visiting them for the month of June.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. (Pete and Dorothy) Pierson will spend most of the summer in their Chicory Street home. They both are enthusiastic golfers and enjoy making the rounds of the golf clubs, especially Mission Valley Country Club near San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Schill were seen lunching at Shadow Mountain Club a few days ago after a trip to Los Angeles. The Schills and their son, Stevie, will spend a week or so at Lazy H Ranch this month.

Taxes in County to Be Subject of CofC's Address

Eric L. Waite, assistant assessor, Riverside County, will be the featured speaker at the monthly meeting of the Riverside County Association of Chambers of Commerce, at noon Friday, June 14, at the Fireside Inn in Beaumont. In urging everyone to attend, Herb A. Ecclestone of Desert Hot Springs, president, said that "Everyone is talking about high taxes in federal, state and county, and demanding that taxes be reduced. So it is an appropriate time to have one of our own county executives tell us 'Why Taxes Are High in Riverside County.'"

The executive committee of the group will meet at 10:30 a. m. at the Fireside Inn, with Harry Creasey discussing Highway 60.

CITY DUMP IS A SERIOUS PROBLEM

No one can blame home owners on the east side of town for complaining about the mess which has been created out there by the city dump.

The point will be brought up of course that the dump came first and that the people who built out that way knew full well that this unsightly affair was already there. Nevertheless it could hardly be expected that the whole area around the dump would remain undeveloped as the city grows and whether it was true or not many of the people who located in the area were told that the dump was going to be moved.

A drive out that way will convince anyone that the problem is a serious one. The city government is as much aware of this as any citizen but City Manager Peterson has been quoted as saying that the dump will have to stay there for at least another two years. This is pretty bad news for the people who live in that vicinity.

We remember back a few years when they used to burn all the rubbish at the dump and how people complained about the smoke from it polluting our pure desert air. As a result the cut and fill method was adopted. Now instead of smoke we have wind blown rubbish scattered over hundreds of acres not far from the eastern city limits. The sight puts the litterbugs to shame. It might be said that we have gone from the fire into the frying pan.

If it is true that the city will be unable to relocate the dump for another two years, as Peterson says, perhaps some better method of controlling the rubbish can be adopted. It wouldn't do much good to clean up the area since it would be in the same condition within a very short time. Some method of keeping papers from being strewn across the desert by strong winds would have to be devised before any relief could be expected.

Most communities do not haul away papers and other readily combustible material and so are not confronted with this problem. They make home owners burn their papers in a backyard incinerator. It goes without saying that the residents of Palm Springs would raise a storm of protest against this plan. A real high wire fence around the dump might relieve the situation considerably and be worth the cost but we will leave that suggestion to those who have given the problem more careful study.

More Growing Pains

This problem of the city dump is just another of the many difficulties encountered by rapidly growing communities like Palm Springs. While it would be bad news for residents of the vicinity we should perhaps consider ourselves lucky if we get this unsightly and unsanitary mess removed within the two years suggested.

In the meantime the city government should do everything possible to reduce the mess just as much as possible. The city should certainly be held responsible for the unsightly condition of the area in the vicinity of the dump.

Perhaps it would be well for the City Council to hold one of its formal meetings out in that vicinity and discuss the problem among themselves. Some members might come up with a bright idea.

HOLMES ALEXANDER:

Things Stirring

WASHINGTON, D. C. — In medical terms they might be called "hairline fractures," and in seismography they might be called "tremors." In the body politic they are signs alike of fission and growth, of dynamism. As small as some of these following examples are, they are signs that our two major parties are not fossils or mummies; they are living things.

The Leader vs. the President: Hardly a year ago there was still much criticism of Senator Lyndon Johnson, the Senate Leader, because he so often declined to come to grips with President Eisenhower. The Senator and the President were in opposite parties, in separate branches of government, and many Democrats, including Adlai Stevenson, wanted to see Johnson rip into like the way Republican Leaders like Kenneth Wherry, Styles Bridges and Robert Taft used to rip into Harry Truman.

LYNDON JOHNSON'S private opinions went something like this: "Now, then, the President's a good man and he's bound to be right a good part of the time. I'm not going to put myself in the wrong every time like's in the right."

Although Johnson did oppose Ike on last year's Natural Gas bill and on the first Farm bill, they remained too close for the comfort of many Democrats. But on the recent debate concerning passage of the U.S. Information Agency appropriation, there was a rift which could mean much less bipartisanship in foreign affairs. A pro-Eisenhower Republican, Senator Javits of New York, laid the matter squarely before Johnson.

JAVITS: "Does the Senator think it is backing the President of the United States, or not backing the President of the United States to vote (against Ike) on this?"

Johnson: "Do not say to me that I cannot act on my own!"

The Leader vs. the Young Turk: In the same debate Johnson, who was, at that moment at least, opposing further involvement in foreign affairs by the Eisenhower team, was challenged by Senator Jack Kennedy in the role of an internationalist. It was a sharp encounter, a little more marked with acerbity than is the usual thing in public between Democratic Senators who are both essentially conservative.

Johnson, as subcommittee chairman in charge of the USA appropriation, had worked hard on it and knew the 1249 pages of testimony practically by heart. He told Kennedy that "no Senator who did hear the testimony would think the USA money was wisely spent. Kennedy had to acknowledge that 'I have tried, but have been unable to read the testimony completely.' At one point the dialogue began to throw off sparks of heated tempers.

JOHNSON: "I would like to repeat what I said earlier, when I hope the Senator was listening."

"Kennedy: I have been listening for three hours."

A small encounter? Perhaps, but in terms of Democratic leadership and presidential aspirations for 1960, it might be a tilt to remember.

USA vs. USW: President Eisenhower's foreign policy has had two programs of global dimensions. One is his arms-for-peace plan which is now before the Senate in the form of a treaty to bind us in a 50-nation compact called the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA). The other is the disarmament plan, based on aerial and ground inspection, of whole sections of the earth.

Well, IAEA comes close to calling for a world government—a United States of the World—in order to carry out the complex and perilous business of exchanging "hot" atomic materials, technical and scientific information, as well as an inspection force to watch out for violations of the rules.

IT IS THIS GROWING awareness of where IAEA would eventually take us that has caused some senators to draw back. One of them, a member of the committee in charge of IAEA, told me: "I wanted to go along with Ike on this. I hope I still can, but handing around this atomic material is like giving whiskey to a man and saying, 'Don't use it for anything except medicinal purposes.'"

"How can we make sure that peaceful atoms won't be turned to military use? And why must we enter into an international co-op? What's the matter with using bilateral treaties, of which we already have 44, if we decide to exchange atomic matters with friendly nations?"

President Eisenhower is set to go the limit on his arms-for-peace plan. Well, if he shoots the works, and fails — what then? What happens to the Eisenhower prestige, which has held not only the Republican party together through two national elections, but has also unified the country in a way that has rarely before happened in time of peace?

THE DISARMAMENT by inspection program, closely identified with arms-for-peace, has already resurrected Harold Stassen as a possible 1960 "peace" candidate. But there is more to it than that. A trust-Russia philosophy is first cousin to a soft-on-Communism philosophy. Wasn't that where the Eisenhower Administration came in, back in 1952?

All these examples, again, are subtle and delicate. They are a long way from being strong and clear. But they prove, if nothing more, that things are stirring under the surface of what so recently was the Eisenhower Era of Good Feeling.

fill their responsibilities as wives and mothers.

Times change. "Woman's place in the home" may once have been a workable idea. Today's woman has elected to try a road that is often difficult. Yet she is made of the same sturdy stuff as her grandmother, and it is not likely that her concern with careers outside the home will ever replace her devotion to the idea of a home of her own.

Roadblock

INEZ ROBB:

Teen-Age Heros

There has been a lot of pious head-shaking throughout the nation because teen-age youths in New York assembled to give Frank Costello, "prime minister of the underworld," a great, big hand just before Uncle Sam clapped the king-pin racketeer back in the pokey.

So why should the nation be shocked? If a kid in this country grows up to be a successful hood, a big-shot thug and a murderer, he not only can live like a king and get his picture on the front pages, but if he's a real pug-ugly, he can always hope to get on a television show and blast any decent citizen against whom he has a grudge.

Overnight, thanks to television, the hood becomes a great teenage personality. Not only can he attack his betters, but he can do it in scrofulous terms usually reserved for a club smoker. The thug is allowed to rattle on and on when he says something so shocking, so outrageous and so extremely offensive to public morals and taste as:

"I have killed no man that in the first place didn't deserve killing by the standards of our way of life."

There is judge and executioner, in one, speaking in the loathsome person of Mickey Cohen, an inextinguishable Los Angeles racketeer, who only kills persons who deserve it by the standards of "our" way of life! Thus does a mobster and mugger appropriate unto himself the power of life and death. And then the public is surprised that teen-agers make heroes of the Costellos!

I have been waiting for the law to pounce on Cohen to ask him for the names and the crimes of those he has executed in the public good. What is the law waiting for? And is Cohen to be permitted to make further summary judgments, at gun point, in the future?

As for Mike Wallace, on whose TV show Cohen appeared, if this is a sample of his "reporting," he should have stuck to acting and announcing.

What television is doing in Wallace-type programs is not presenting news but entertainment. And it is competing for the same type of audience that buys the lurid and libelous "true confessions" magazines that are a disgrace to the country and a cancer on the news stands.

Nor can my own profession deny all responsibility for the hero status of huns, tramps, thugs, murderers, cheats, sharpers, adulterers and so-called "international characters."

For a fortnight, it has been all but impossible to pick up a newspaper that has not seen fit to devote a half-column to the latest dalliance of Robert Rossellini. I feel certain that I am not the only citizen who could manage to go through life without ever again hearing this man's name or that of his wife.

And recently when a famous auto-racer was killed in Europe, American newspapers devoted more space to the notorious movie star who was in attendance on him than to the man's wife, children and mother.

So why should we be surprised if teen-agers make heroes of the morally and spiritually bankrupt? They didn't deck the bums with laurel in the first place.

GRIN AND BEAR IT

By LICHTY

"I hate these portable television sets!... All I seem to do is pick up food in every room of the house!"

EARL WILSON:

Como's Ace

NEW YORK — I wondered just who it is that keeps Perry Como sweet — and always the nice guy — so I asked Goodman Ace, his head writer.

"It's not me," insisted Goodie. "I'm the villain and the heel who gives him jokes he won't do. I guess the guy who keeps him nice is Perry Como. Incidentally, Perry never says he's a nice guy. The public says it."

And he spun off a few jokes that Perry wouldn't do.

"My wife makes all the little decisions at our house, but I make the big decisions," was the way one was supposed to go... and Perry was to be asked to explain that.

"Well, I let her make the little decisions like where we're going to live, what kind of a car we'll have... but whether we're going to recognize Red China... big decisions like that... I make!"

Perry read that in a script conference, laughed heartily, then said, "Well, that's a good cut." It wasn't that he objected to the taste, but it's a "jokey joke," a "story joke." Perry was very cautious when Bishop Sheen was on at Christmas, too.

The Bishop was to say at the Christmas tree, "I wonder if I could exchange this gift you gave me? You see—it's a tie!"

Then Perry was to tell the Bishop he had to do a commercial. "You know what a commercial is, don't you, Your Excellency?" he was to ask.

And the Bishop was to answer: "Certainly! It's when you pass the collection plate."

Perry scissored those products whipped up by one of the greatest joke-writing outfits in the TV business. Perry also has nixed cannibal jokes — evidently because it reminds him of missionaries... not because he's afraid of offending cannibals.

"We had little Brenda Lee on the show," Goodie remembered. "Perry was to say, 'I'll take you out afterward and buy you an ice cream cone.' And Brenda was to answer: 'No, thanks, Perry. I break out.'"

"He didn't want to do it," Goodie said. "I made a little cause celebre out of it. I kept crapping till he did it. The thing is, Perry would rather sacrifice a laugh than violate good taste."

They still tell how he gave Julius La Rosa a one-word greeting on one of his first shows — (the word was "Humility") — and after getting 26 letters of beefs from Arthur Godfrey fans, insisted on apologizing.

"Don't do it, Perry," his adviser advised, futilely.

For he determined to do it at the start of the show and lengthily.

"No, sing a song first. Get the show off the ground first," his advisers again advised—futilely.

Perry devoted a couple minutes to apologizing for a one-word offense. "But Perry was right," the advisers'll tell you now.

For an Easter fashion show, they wrote a line: "That dress looks familiar — I think I saw Milton Berle wear it on his television program."

"Milton might not like it," Perry objected.

"Not only will he like it — but he'll send you $50!" maintained Ace.

Perry declined that, also most Elvis Presley and most rock 'n' roll jokes... and he quit doing Jackie Gleason jokes after he topped Gleason in the ratings. Perry generally won't do jokes about anybody who's lower than he is in a rating scrap or who might be in trouble at the moment.

Como doesn't think he should make any jokes, personally, about his famous "relaxed attitude." On one program, however, Gene Autry said, "I usually do my show on film—this is the first time we've been on live." Perry answered, "That's the nicest thing anybody ever said about us!"

"People say Perry isn't a comic," Goodie said. "Well, Jack Benny thinks the guy's got great timing and that he's got the makings of a great light comedian."

"He called up and said so, and wanted to be on the show."

"Perry doesn't think so. He thinks he's just a singer and all he wants to be is Perry Como. And that's not bad, either."

"DON'T PRINT THAT!"

A famous singer has been told not to walk through the lobby of her swank hotel in slacks again... A recent H'wood divorce settlement gave the husband a flat $50,000 and no community property... Liberace was threatened with another expose magazine story unless he paid blackmail. California's D. A. has the case.

June Havoc's husband gave her three sets of earrings... so now she gotta get her ears pierced... "World Citizen" Gary Davis' autobiography will be titled, "The World and I"... Myron Cohen was signed for the entire Starline chain... Film producer Joseph Burstyn's ex-sec'y, Fay Miske, tried it too — her first film, "Stella," opens June 10.

Tony Bennett's getting standing ovations in his big show at the Town and Country... The film companies are checking on Fred Olsson, stage carpenter at the B'ways Theater; he sings... Comic Marty Guntly will play the Sammy Davis Jr. role in "Mr. Wonderful" summer stock.

TODAY'S BEST LAUGH:

Eddie Bracken likes his job quizmaster on TV's "Masquerade Party": "On a TV panel show you don't have to worry about your pants being pressed."

WISH I'D SAID THAT:

Nowadays, it takes longer to see a picture than it did to make it.

Big gag at Lindy's: "What's the difference between 'unlawful' and 'illegal'?"... "Well, 'unlawful' means contrary to law. 'Illegal' is a sick eagle."... That's earl, brother.

MIKE CONNELLY:

Errol in, Kipp Out

HOLLYWOOD — Fox starlet Kipp Hamilton flew to New York to see about co-starring with Trevor Howard in a new play. Then the gazettes bulletined that Howard was out of it, for unspecified reasons, and that Errol Flynn was in. Whereupon the starlet received a wire from her mother dated Hollywood: "Come home immediately."

Judy Garland found a hair-dresser to her liking in Las Vegas while playing the Flamingo, signed him to a term contract and took him off on her current tour, first stop being Detroit... Marlon Brando is rushing Barbara Rush.

Insiders claim the Brooklyn Dodgers will play all their Los Angeles games next year in the Los Angeles Coliseum... In "Pal Joey," Kim Novak will do a striptease to a routine based on strains from Mozart, Boccherini and Rodgers & Hart's "I Could Write a Book." Freddy Karger, who did the musical arrangement, calls the number, "From Mozart to Minsky."

MORE NEWSVILLE from the Boozeville Beat: Conley Graves, the hot pianist, plunged headlong into his opening at The Captain's Table by keyboarding Bach's Prelude and Fugue from The Well-Tempered Clavier in ragtime. Afterward I asked Conley howcum. Replied he "Man, don't you know that's the way Bach would do it if he were here today? That Bach was the coolest man—all you have to do is listen to some of his crazy chords to know THAT, daddy-o!"

Joan Blackman and Vince Edwards had an extra serving of mozzarella marinara at Frank Sinatra's new restaurant, the Villa Capri, to celebrate Joan's new venture—the leading lady role in "Hecht-Hill-Lancaster's" "Rabbit Trap"... P. S.: Joan used to date Frankie, pre-Vince. Meg Randall's definition of a good dancer: "One has learned the art of pulling her feet away faster than her partner can step on them."

TV TOPICS — Shooting the breeze with Sinatra on Columbia's "Pal Joey" set the other day, I learned The Big Reason he'll toil in weekly TV, starting Oct. 18. It's because of the residuals involved... The Thin One's deal with ABC-TV gives him the biggest break on a 60-40 split on residuals. Said he: "At long last I'll be able to set aside a trust fund for Nancy (Sinatra's first wife) and our three children." Frank isn't afraid of being over-exposed on television. He believes that if a performer does a good job in pictures and on records (and that is something he does) and gives his TV audience a good show, nobody's going to tire of that performer.

Added Frank: "We'll have a good change of pace in our series and we'll hang our hats on versatility. We won't try to fool our viewers — we'll give honest performances and will really try to entertain them."

It's Doris Day's story — about the traveling salesman who phoned his wife from out of town. A man answered and then put the salesman's wife on the wire. Salesman: "Who was that man who answered?" Wife: "Him?" Oh, that was just some creep who wanted to know if the coast was clear—so I told him, "How should I know? I took the inland route!"

B & PW Club Has Barbecue

Hostess Estelle Routlinger greeted members of the Desert Business and Professional Women's Club as they arrived at her Ideal Court in Cathedral City Tuesday evening for a pre-dinner swim and a delicious barbecue. The barbecue prepared by Roy Routlinger, Clara Irving and Lillian Mallory was served to members at umbrella tables on the cool green dichondra lawn underneath the stars.

A short business meeting followed the barbecue and it was decided the club will hold one meeting a month in July, August and September. The next regular meeting will be June 18, at 8 p.m. on Scott's patio in Cathedral City. Colored slides of Mexico were shown by Roy Routlinger.

Club members present: Fern Scott, Mary Alfred, Katherine Brubaker, Regina Spencer, Mildred Clark, Hazel Critchlow, Lillian Mallory, Darcas Drage, Dorothy Gruber, Kathleen Hill, Susan Jackson and Clara Irvine.

Graduate Gives Dinner Dance at Western Hills

Candles flickered on the tables and a new moon glittered in the sky Monday as Sandra Lee, daughter of the J. Ross Clarks hostess, a poolside dinner dance at Desi Arnaz' Western Hills Hotel. The formal affair celebrated Sandra Lee's graduation from Bishop School for Girls and the 80 guests were classmates and their dates.

The young hostess, looking beautiful in a white formal, was escorted by Lee Metzger Jr., UCLA student from Santa Ana. Lobsters on beds of crushed ice and an elaborate array of food marked the menu which was served buffet style.

The young people danced until an early hour to the music of Leo Rojo and his orchestra.

Author to Give Talk on Yogi

Metaphysicians and others interested are invited to attend a lecture which will be given tomorrow night at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. W. H. Stute at 1626 North Riverside Drive.

To heat commercially canned vegetables, drain the liquid into a saucepan and boil it rapidly before adding the vegetable to heat.

All-Night Party for Graduates

Graduates of the Class of '57 Palm Springs High School will long remember Mrs. Pearl McManus for her generous donation of the Tennis Club on the night of June 7th for the setting of their final dance which will be from ten until sun-up, and which will follow graduation ceremonies at the Quad.

Plans are about completed for the evening of fun as arranged by Senior Parents and P.T.A. Many donations have been received from various service clubs and civic-minded folk.

Those instrumental in planning the affair point out that it is customary all over the United States for Seniors on graduation night to stay out until sun-up. Where properly chaperoned celebrations are not planned on the local level, the graduates drive out of town to celebrate. Tired and sleepy youngsters produce traffic hazards often tragedies, police reports show. Therefore, Senior parents and the P.T.A. feel it their duty to guide them safely through their evening of fun.

Only Seniors and their dates are to remain after 12:00 p.m. Undergraduates will be charged 50 cents single and 75 cents per couple.

Music for dancing will be furnished by Walker Larsen and his merry-makers who will play from 10 to 2.

On the planning committee are Senior parents, Mrs. Harry Binzer, Mrs. George Schuler, co-chairmen; Mrs. Roger Williams, finance chairman; Mrs. Gallenani, P.T.A. president, and eight board members have assisted also in the planning.

Other chaperones will be on hand at all hours from 10 p.m. until the close of festivities. Refreshments will be served by P.T.A. members from 9:30 until midnight. Senior mothers will serve the buffet supper at 2 a.m. and breakfast at 6 a.m., assisted by P.T.A. board members.

Mrs. Anderson, assisted by Mrs. Olds, will create and decorate cakes with the theme "Good luck '57 Graduates" surrounded by tiny roses.

Soroptimists Give Nursing Scholarship

Vice president Polly Isenagle presided at the meeting due to the illness of the president Mabel Russell. The program presented City Manager Robert Peterson and Mrs. Stewart Williams discussed the coming bond issue.

Installation of officers will take place June 12, at 7:30 p.m., in the patio of The Springs, with past president Madge Holderman as installing officer. Lucille Johnson will head the guest committee; Marie Ford, decorations; Trixie Jarrette and Jean Marnell, entertainment.

There will be no meeting next Tuesday noon due to the installation party.

To keep steel wool pads from rusting, wrap in waxed paper when not in use.

Cadillac

Greatness Is Never Achieved Suddenly!

It has long been true, in the affairs of men, that only time can confirm the gift of greatness.

Artist, statesman, writer, craftsman—each must await the years for the maturity of his talent and for the verdict of his judges.

And as it is in the affairs of men, so it is in the world of commerce. Nothing great was ever created suddenly—whether the product be that of an individual or of an organization.

Here, most certainly, is the very genesis of the unique position which Cadillac currently occupies in the hearts and minds of the world's motorists.

Since the first Cadillac car made its appearance more than fifty-five years ago, it has always been created to a single objective: to make it as fine a motor car as it is possible to produce.

And, without question, the mission and the accomplishment have been one and the same.

The goodness of Cadillac has, in fact, been so apparent over that lengthy span that the Cadillac name stands today as an accepted synonym for quality wherever highways exist.

The pretenders have come—and they have gone. For time is an exacting taskmaster—and only the principles that have created the great Cadillac car and only the devotion that has given it being have been equal to the challenge.

Never has this fact been more deeply etched in the public consciousness than it is during the present automotive year.

If you have yet to take the wheel of a 1957 Cadillac, you should hesitate no longer to visit your authorized Cadillac dealer.

Waiting for you in his showroom is proof beyond doubt that Cadillac is—in fact as in reputation—the Standard of the World!

TODAY'S SPORTS PARADE

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK — The hours and the hammering are crowding in on Kid Gavilan, but the apparently ageless hawk of Havana still is dreaming of another shot at the welterweight crown he lost three years ago.

The Keed is an old man in the memory of the ring. His face has the pitted and flatness of a dinner plate and his ears are bent and twisted from the countless blows he has taken during a 15-year fistic career.

"But I'm only 31," he protests, "so the years of the fighting mean nothing."

GAVILAN GETS a chance of sorts to realize his dream when he meets Vince Martinez at Jersey City's Roosevelt Stadium on June 17.

The winner is hoping for a shot at champion Carmen Basilio but such is the interwoven state of the middle divisions that, no matter what the promises, Basilio prefers a crack at middleweight champion Ray Robinson.

Gavilan knows much of broken promises.

WHETHER YOU like his flashy maneuvers as a boxer you have to admit that when he wore the welter crown he was a fighting champion. The Keed had it up for grabs eight times in three years. But he has been waiting for a never-held rematch ever since he dropped the title to Johnny Saxton in 1954.

They were almost two years of limbo for the Kid. He became a man who fought in the backwash and on foreign shores as his name disappeared from the marquee. And it began to appear that he had deteriorated into a trial horse for the younger comers.

"NOT SO," he fumes. "Ten times I fight. Ten times I win. Ten times the decision goes against me. The newspapers say the Keed he wins. The record book, she say I lose."

The Kid, with 136 recorded bouts behind him and a mark of 104 triumphs, refuses to look back across the busy years but with an unalterably sunny disposition scans the horizon instead. Fighting is all he knows and he refuses to believe he is over the hill.

"I'm only 31," he shrugs. "Archie Moore must be 45 and still good. I have a long way to go yet—all the way to the title."

You kind of have to hope he makes it.

Turner Wins Bout, Spends Night in Hospital

MIAMI BEACH — Gil Turner's unrelenting fists won him an upset split decision over Bimini's Yama Bahama in a 10-round fight Wednesday night, but his manager ordered him to a hospital with a painful head injury which doctors said was not serious.

Turner, 26-year-old Philadelphia, suffered a torn vein under the skin of his forehead and a possible concussion while battering through the defensive maneuvers of the swarthy Bahama before 2,000 fans at the Miami Beach auditorium.

Turner was taken to Mt. Sinai Hospital to spend the night under observation at the request of his manager, George Katz. The hospital said at midnight most of the swelling in Turner's forehead had gone down and he was "feeling fine."

AMA Orders Check Into Athletes' Use of Stimulants

NEW YORK — The American Medical Assn. has ordered an investigation into the "shocking" use of stimulants by amateur and professional athletes.

Charges of "indiscriminate" use of stimulants by athletes, including school children, were made before the AMA's 106th annual meeting Wednesday by Dr. Herbert Berger.

Berger, chairman of the New York state Medical Society's committee on narcotics and alcohol addition, told the AMA "the recent rash of four-minute miles is no coincidence."

"The house of delegates to the medical association, after hearing Berger, said reports on the use of drugs by athletes were 'shocking' and a 'vicious practice' that should be stopped."

It adopted a resolution from the new York delegation requesting that "the indiscriminate administration of these stimulants or their use under the direction of non-medical persons be condemned as dangerous to our youth."

The house of delegates, the associations top policy-making body, then went a step further and ordered an investigation.

THE RESOLUTION singled out amphetamine as an undesirable stimulant used by athletes.

Amphetamine is used as an inhalant or spray for head colds, hay fever and other complaints, but can also be taken in pill form. It is sold under a variety of trade names including Benzedrine, Phenadrine, Allodene, Isomyn and Dexedrine.

Berger said amphetamine is sold in volume second only to as-

Police Officers To Compete for Anthony Plaque

Again it is time for officers of the Palm Springs police department to compete for the Earle C. Anthony Plaque, which is won by the best marksman on the force.

The games will be held June 8 at the New Palm Springs police range on Highway 111 just outside of the north city limits.

Chief of Police August G. Kettmann said today that the public is invited to the range to watch the contests which will be under the supervision of Officer W. L. Jessup, instructor and two-time winner of the award.

SGT. ROBERT Ralph won the award once.

Time schedule for the contestants, starting Saturday morning, will be:

9 a. m.—Lt. William Lux, William Madsen, Neil Green, Bob Sandeffer and Robert Johnson.

9:30 a. m.—Sgt. John Herrera, Capt. Orest Johnson, Lt. Robert White, Nick Maff and Dick Larsen.

10:30 a. m.—Lt. Ted Greene, Robert Ralph, Dick Harris, Lt. Dale Thompson, Carroll Vogelaar.

10:30 a. m.—Lt. Ted Greene, Jack Bennett, F. A. Stevenson, Gene Holmes, Pablo, Bob Flavin.

11 a. m.—Paul Smith, Tom Tobey, Robert Davis, Matt Calac, Darwin B. Mullins.

11:30 a. m.—Ray Youngberg, T. M. Aiken, Dick Rajcher, Quincy Welch and W. L. Jessup.

The scoring is expected to end by noon Saturday.

Citizens Committee Terms It Civic Duty to Vote 'Yes'

"It is a 'civic-duty must' for every voter in Riverside County to take time out and vote 'yes' on Propositions 'A' and 'B' at the June 11 special election, so that the serious and costly mess that exists today in county governmental operations through lack of proper office space, buildings and facilities may be corrected," Elvin I. Downs, chairman of the Citizens County-Wide Committee for County Buildings, said today.

"Any voter who refuses to go to the polls and put his 'Yes' vote on record for these two proposed county bond issues will risk jeopardizing the future welfare and efficiency of the very county government services that each of the 260,000 citizens in this county expect in return for the tax dollars every resident must provide to county government by law," Downs said in a final pre-election appeal to voters.

SINCE 1930 county population increased 20 per cent, but meanwhile, county-owned office space increased only 32 per cent. At the county building, erected in 1903, witness the cutting up of office and the closing of public entrances to the court house, with money being poured down the drain to get smaller offices by putting in expensive patch-up partitions. In several departments employees are squeezed so closely together and in between files and furniture, that urgently need additional persons the county has been authorized to hire can't be put to work.

"Add to this mess the fact that today $44,000 a year of taxpayer's money must be used to pay rentals for either inadequate or unsatisfactory office space, both at the county seat and in outlying communities where branch offices of county departments must operate in order to carry county services to the people, and save them long, unreasonable and expensive trips to the county seat.

"RENTED OFFICES to house branch departments in some outlying cities are situated at different locations in that community. Some are scattered in such places as city halls, fire stations, garages, warehouses, motels and even in homes of county employees. This just doesn't make sense. Overcrowded housing conditions at county jail and sub-stations are disgraceful. At the Blythe jail, cells intended to hold eight prisoners sometimes are crammed with five times that number, which is an insult to human decency.

"Tragically, we have gone far beyond the point of absolute necessity, to get modern efficient buildings, owned and operated by the county. Four County Grand Juries have demanded such action. So have committees and commissions of respected citizens from all parts of the County, appointed by Superior Court and County Supervisors to investigate and report their findings.

"Hundreds of prominent citizens, business, civic and labor leaders know the true facts. They are campaigning vigorously to get this mess eradicated from our county government. The taxpayers must round up an overwhelming 'Yes' vote from friends and neighbors to put across these two bond issues, which cannot win unless they earn a two-thirds majority on June 11.

"There is some stubborn, horse-and-buggy days thinking bucking the passage of these two bond issues, as occurs in all elections. It is up to the thinking citizens to swamp this attack upon common sense with 'Yes' votes, so county governmental operations can be run on the most economical and business-like basis and provide the best possible service to every citizen," Downs emphasized.

"PROPOSITION 'A' — is for $4,420,000 to buy land and construct buildings at the county seat; to establish regional and community centers at Indio, Blythe, Hemet, Elsinore, Corona, Palm Springs and the Beaumont-Banning area; to construct buildings for agricultural warehouse, and related purposes, to add facilities for industrial road camps and a branch of the Juvenile Hall in Coachella Valley.

"Proposition 'B' is for $1,045,000 for the purchase of land at the county seat to be used for parking by citizens having business at the court house, and by county employees who each would pay a personal monthly fee for parking; and for the development of other facilities.

Variance Board To Hold Two Public Hearings

Two public hearings are scheduled by the Palm Springs Variance Board at its meeting at 2 p. m., Friday.

At 2 p. m. will be heard the application of William J. O'Brien, Jr., for a variance from height of walls and setback ordinances for property known as Desert Holly Apartments, located on the north side of McCallum Way between Sunset Way and Donald Drive.

At 2:15 p. m. is scheduled the hearing on the application of Lillian and E. Halstead for a variance from the side yard setback requirements, for property located at 1210 Buena Vista.

The board also will consider recommendations to Mayor Florian Boyd for appointment to the board of members whose terms have expired.

State Acquisition Of Palm Oases Urged by County

Preparation of a resolution urging Governor Goodwin J. Knight to support a move for a state acquisition of the Palm Oases of Coachella Valley for inclusion in the state parks system, was ordered by the county board of supervisors this week.

The action was prompted by receipt from the City of Indio of a copy of its letter to the Governor urging his support of the project, and describing the palm tree area as "natural wonders of increasing interest to residents and tourists — valuable because unique, rare and irreplaceable."

The Indio city fathers pointed out that state investigation committees as well as state officials and organizations have approved the inclusion of the Palm Oases in the state park system.

By VIRGINIA DAVIS

The Calypso cocktail and buffet supper hosted Sunday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Porter, was something a little special, and decidedly different, with Calypso food and Calypso music.

The patio setting of their beautiful 45-foot Pan-American, with its artistic landscaping and lovely flowers, lent a truly Caribbean-like atmosphere to the surroundings.

THE TABLES bright with floral-designed cloths, centered with a bowl of tropical fruits, fresh pineapples and coconuts, with the shells used as snack servers, added to the Calypso decor.

And as rum is an important adjunct to the food of the land of Calypso, rum-flavored veal cutlets (substituted for turtle steak) was featured on the menu, with red beans, rice and fresh coconut flavored with sherry and rum. The dessert was a favorite Jamaican pastry called gisadas.

Among those present were Alvirra and Dave Evans and Rudy Campbell, Hilda and Frank Lent, Dr. Ray and Joe Schutt, the host and hostess, Bob and Cecil Porter.

RUTH AND JACK Allen had as their dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lewis of Riverside. Also weekend guests of the Allens were William Howard and John Burns, of Venice, Ill. Mr. Howard is city alderman and Mr. Burns is city treasurer of Venice.

Rosa and John Cassidy left Tuesday on their annual month's vacation. They expect to travel most of the month, but their first outing will be a week's fishing trip on the Colorado River.

Among the weekend guests at De Luxe were Mr. and Mrs. R. Adams and family of Alhambra, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Gould and family of Whittier, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Erickson and family of Encino, Irene Barr and Maureen Flanders of Yucaipa, Mr. and Mrs. Ivar Polly and Mr. and Mrs.

Howard Meyer of Hollywood, Mr. and Mrs. Sid Melinkoff of Hollywood and Mr. and Mrs. Lane of Wilmington.

DR. AND MRS. RAY Schutt entertained at a series of dinners prior to their return home in the North. Guests included were Maude and Rudy Campbell, Dave and Alvirra Evans, Cecil and Bob Porter, Hilda and Frank Lent, Jessie and Emery Harnden, Doris and Fred Harnden, Vic and Lou Laursen, "Fuz" and Nona Ralph, Lynis and Ethel Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Perry West of Sahara, Mr. and Mrs. Angus McMillan also of Sahara, and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Evans of Palm Springs.

The following De Luxe residents also entertained at cocktail and dinner parties bidding farewell to those who were soon to leave. Among those entertaining were Hilda and Frank Lent, Jessie and Emery Harnden, Maude and Rudy Campbell, Vic and Lou Laursen, and Dave and Alvirra Evans.

Six thousand persons died in the tornado and tidal wave that struck Galveston, Texas, in 1900.

"We Were Amazed"

Says CAR LIFE,
The Family Auto Magazine

We were amazed as we drove the Special four-door hardtop, to find that an automobile could be completely changed yet retain so much of its former appearance and character. The 1957 models have all the familiar, solid Buick virtues.

THE ABOVE brief clipping tells you worlds about the '57 Buick.

It tells you we went all out to make this car completely new—yet we didn't sacrifice a single Buick virtue.

So you still get that unmistakable Buick styling.

You still get that big-car room and comfort and that solid Buick quality.

But you also get so complete a change in the vitals of this car that the driving of it is a wondrous new experience.

You get a brilliant brand of performance that's different from anything else that goes on four wheels.

Words won't describe it. Telling you there's an all-new engine, an instant new Dynaflo,* a completely new power train—none of that will convey this news to you.

What you have to do is get in this car and drive it. Drive it around the block, through town, out on the highway. Actually feel what happens when you press the gas pedal, turn the steering wheel, touch those powerful new brakes.

Then—and not till then—will you know why folks call this "the dream car to drive."

The best advice we can give you, by far, is this: Ask your dealer for a trial run today.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special. Safety-Buzzer is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.
